

Rosemary Roberts

Elected member of the Board of Whangarei Anglican Care Trust in 2014.

Trained as a journalist for the NZ Herald in 1967. Appointed as reporter for Northland in 1969.

Returned to journalism after a break to raise family, working for the Whangarei Report and the Northern Advocate for twenty seven years.

Completed a three year term on the Whangarei District Councils Creative Communities Grants Assessment Committee.

Served on the Whangarei Girl's High School PTA, Northland Performing Arts Society committee and is a past president of the Raumanga Community Association and the Whangarei Toastmistress Club (now International Training in Communication).

People's Warden at Christ Church, Whangarei and vestry member for four years.

Currently manager of the Whangarei Anglican Twice Round op shop.