

Helen Port

Worked for World Vision for 20+ years in Customer Service role as team member/leader and briefly team manager.

Did midwifery training for 2.5 years and decided this role was not for me but learnt a lot on various topics (anatomy/physiology; communication; stages of life; our impact on the planet; treaty and its role today) along the way.

Have 2 married adult children and 4 grandsons.

Remarried in 2012. For 2 years shared camp manager role at Coopers Beach Christian Youth Camp with my husband before moving to Whangarei. Worked in the office at Anglican Care Centre for 3 years before retiring with my husband to support family and enjoy caravan adventures. Born in Kaitaia, I lived most of my life in West Auckland. Travelled to Bangladesh, India, Australia, USA.

Enjoy patchwork/quilting; reading; scrapbooking; card making; most craft; cycling.

Became a Christian in 1982 and been involved in various admin and worship ministries since then. Have a keen interest in youth, women and marriages.
